October Events

Seven Corvettes full of HCC members enjoyed an overnight trip to Copper Harbor and nearby UP destinations in early October. Highlights of the trip included a mine tour, lots of good food and fall colors. There are also reports of hot tub merrymaking!

The October dinner run to Holiday Acres in Rhineland was attended by seventeen club members. The rustic atmosphere is always enjoyable. The only mishap of the evening was a deer/Corvette encounter by Mike and Sue!

November Dinner Run

Mike Keintz has chosen the White Spruce Inn in Eagle River for the Tuesday, November 14th dinner run. It has reopened recently and he and Sue have checked it out already. We will have the "log cabin" room to ourselves. Cocktails are whenever you wish to get there with dinner at 7:00 PM.

Please RSVP to Susie at 715/5478307 or skeet400@nnex.net by November 9.

Upcoming Events

Our Christmas party will be at the Golden Pines in St. Germain on Tuesday, December 12th. Cocktails will be at 6:00 PM with dinner at 7:00. Our popular White Elephant gift exchange will have some slight rule changes this year. Details will follow from Sue Keintz.

The 2007 planning meeting will be held in Tomahawk in late April. It will include a ride around the Tomahawk area with dinner following on Saturday evening. The planning meeting will be held on Sunday morning for those who want to host a ride or event. Additional ideas included cocktails at Roger and Mary's house! Kirk Farness, Buddy Gessler and a few others will plan the event.

Changing of the Guard

Tom Timken will be resigning as our president at the end of the year. He feels that it is time for new ideas and leadership. Tom and Brenda will remain active in the club. Headwaters Corvette Club is now looking for someone to step forward and lead our fun organization!
